

Join Author David Swarbrick in this dramatic twisting tale of love, loss, and one mans struggle to start A New Beginning Mark Morgan is a famous writer. He has everything his heart could desire: money, a nice house, a nice vacation home, cars, and a beautiful loving wife whod recently become pregnant. It was all anyone could ever dream of or hope for, and he was the happiest person that one could ever be. All things were going good for him; his books were selling faster than they could be shelved, he won a couple of awards, and he and his wife were going to have the little girl that he had always wanted. For the both of them it was true bliss. One day after tragedy strikes for the second time, Mark loses himself and almost everything else. His wife and unborn child are killed, his uncle, who was his best friend for so long is gone. He doesnt care about his career or himself anymore, hopelessness sets in, he soon becomes mentally ill, and he just cant find the will or strength to move on. Kara, his wife was the only person in his life besides his mother and uncle that he had ever truly loved, and now that theyre both gone, will he ever be the same, and will he be able to live his life and truly love anything or anyone else ever again? A New Beginning by David Swarbrick was a wonderfully written story about love, loss and new beginnings. Marks losses and battles are emotionally riveting and touching. They will make you laugh, cry and ask why did that happen. This book is a page turner. Once you start you will not be able to stop. --C.
