

The upcoming 2016 presidential election may very well be one of the most influential elections to take place in the last fifty years. Will our country's security, freedom, and wealth be safe in the hands of a business magnate? Donald Trump is an extremely well known entrepreneur, billionaire real estate mogul, and television personality. Adding to his impressive list of accolades, he is also now a frontrunner in the 2016 presidential election. Gaining popular vote for the Republican party. This truly is sight to behold. He has stated that he did not want to run, but rather that he had to run. Some love him. Others despise him. Either way, the ten billion dollar man doesn't seem to be going anywhere and his strong presence in the political fray has certainly shaken things up. The media may make Trump out to be vain or self-centered. Many would argue that they are correct. He's definitely different, but putting all of his crazy characteristics aside, all it comes down to the fact that regardless of if you like Donald Trump as person or not, he gets things done. That is the one quality that we may need to move this country forward, no matter who it be in driver's seat. His controversial antics have people wondering if this could be nothing more than a large scale publicity stunt. Trump has divided republicans, libertarians and independents, sparking a massive debate. He's been called everything from a racist to a rapist. But does he care? He seems to have the republican party against him because they believe he is skewing the image minorities hold of them. Other parties fear his outlandish tactics because he is financing his own candidacy. Therefore, he's only at the mercy of the American people. He's a shameless man looking out for the greater good of this country and his bluntness is his greatest asset. At first, he was ostracized for announcing his running in the election. Now, people are looking for an alternative which will bring peace and fairness to our system of government. This country may finally understand that if they want to vote for change, then there is no other choice than Donald Trump. This is just the tip of the iceberg.
