

Hunting Adventures, From Father to Son is about the authors lifetime enjoyment of hunting and his growth and maturity as a hunter. The chronological format used, beginning with Kimbers first duck hunt as a twelve year old and ending with a mule deer bowhunt in his late fifties, will appeal to hunters of all ages. Underlying his stories is a long-term evolutionary change in attitude and outlook about hunting, from a youthful emphasis on bag limits and kill counts to a broader appreciation of the total experience, where harvesting game becomes a bonus and not the sole measure of ones hunting satisfaction or success. Kimber Shoops hunting adventures and memories are not dissimilar to those treasured by thousands of others who venture forth with bow or gun. Companions and places may differ, but the sights, smells, and sounds are the same for all! It is the authors hope that his tales will not only entertain, but serve as a learning tool to help eliminate mistakes and promote greater success in the field, marsh, or woods, regardless of age, from father to son!
