

Within the pages of this book are the stories of thirty-two people who met Jesus in His day. Some of them are young, and some of them are old. Some are rich, and some are poor. Some of them are well documented by the gospel writers; others received just a few lines. But as you read, you will come to know the rest of their story as the author imagined it because each of us has a story to tell. And what a great story each of them had as they met Jesus face to face. The authors imagination and Gods help were required to pick up where the gospel writers left off, of course, buy as you read their stories they will become more real to you, and you will meet Jesus in a more personal way along the way.
