

It's been a long 56 years since I was born in Sevierville Tennessee. I am just a simple woman who believes my writing ability was a gift from God to help me heal from the devastating loss of my second husband. I am healing and moving forward from my loss looking forward to retiring from teaching after 34 years and spending even more time writing inspirational devotionals and perhaps a few books. I am currently working on my second book, Tears of Faith, an autobiography of my experiences after the divorce of my first husband. I begin life new every day as God wakes me up to write about the Bible chapter I read each night. Visit my blog www.wakingupwithgod.blogspot.com to read what God lays on my heart each morning. References: This book is the PRODUCT of an author whose passion is to grow in her relationship with God and in understanding of His master plan at work in her life. I am certain that the Holy Spirit will bring you the same comfort, encouragement and inspiration that He has always given to me through Barbara's writings. • Brad Parrett, Youth Pastor of Souls Harbor Church: "As uplifting and inspirational as anything I've seen come along in quite some time. Heartfelt, CHRIST inspired, and meaningful, it makes perfect sense that Barbara is the author." --Joe Souza (founder of CHRIST Lives Ministry)--
