

M. de Renal, the mayor of the provincial town Verrieres, hires Julien Sorel to be his childrens tutor. Julien is only a carpenters son, but dreams of following in the footsteps of his hero, Napoleon. However, in Juliens time, men gain power in the Church and not in the army. Even though he is training to become a priest, Julien decides to seduce the mayors wife, Mme. de Renal, because he thinks that it is his duty. They become lovers, but M. Valenod, the mayors political adversary, finds out about the affair and begins to spread rumors. M. de Renal is profoundly embarrassed, but his wife convinces him that the rumors are false. M. Chelan, the town priest and Juliens mentor, sends him to the Besancon seminary to avoid any further scandal.
